

Flexible Service Response

Do you find it difficult doing everyday tasks? ADEC can help!

What is ADEC?

Action on Disability within Ethnic Communities (ADEC) is an organisation that helps those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds who live with a disability and their carers.

What is the Flexible Service Response?

This service is under The Home and Community Care Program for Younger People (HACC-PYP). Aimed at assisting people under the age of 65 and their unpaid carers and family members.

This service offers information for people to:

- Learn WHAT government services are available
- Understand HOW services may help
- Get support to APPLY for services that will help

Who is Eligible?

People who are:

- Aged under 65 years
- Not eligible for National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)
- Those with diagnosed and undiagnosed mental health issues
- Those who are socially isolated
- Those adversely affected during Covid lockdowns
- Carers or family members of people that satisfy the above criteria

For further information please contact the Werribee Office on:

Phone: 9480 7000 (option 3)

Email: werribee@adec.org.au

www.adec.org.au