

Commonwealth Home Support Program

Stay Moving.
Stay Connected

We're here to support your independence

Staying active and connected is important for your health and wellbeing. ADEC's Commonwealth Home Support Programme (CHSP) provides practical support to help you continue living independently at home and stay connected to your community.

We make everyday life easier so you can keep doing the things that matter to you.

Joining the ADEC community

Getting started is simple. Our team will guide you through the process and help you access the support you need. You don't have to figure it out alone - we are here to help. We will:

- Explain your options clearly
- Help you access CHSP services
- Arrange support that suits your needs
